

Constituent Associations

AGRICULTURE — Acting MSU President Edgar Harden and ANR Dean James Anderson addressed the College's Alumni Association members at a luncheon March 22 during Farmers' Week. The event was held in the Centennial Room of the Kellogg Center.

COMMUNICATION ARTS — David Coelho, '72, of Mason, has been elected president of the College of Communication Arts and Sciences Alumni Association. Coelho, a Communications major, is general manager of M. H. Hausman Co., a shopping center development firm based in Cleveland. CCAS board announced plans for an Alumni Awards Luncheon to be held May 20 at the University Club.

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION — The 29th annual Building Construction Alumni Association Seminar and Awards Dinner will be held May 3-4 at the Hospitality Motor Inn, Lansing. Prof. Bryon M. "Rip" Radcliffe will be the guest speaker. At that time the Department will announce its Outstanding Alumnus.

Caldwell named to Presidential Search Committee

R. William Caldwell, of Midland, a 1938 chemical engineering graduate, has been selected to serve as the alumni representative on the 17-member Presidential Search and Selection Committee.

Caldwell was chosen by the Executive Committee of the MSU Alumni Association.

He is a partner with Doan Associates, of Midland, a venture business that invests in enterprising people. It invests in those entrepreneurs who own companies and/or products that have expectations for appreciation.

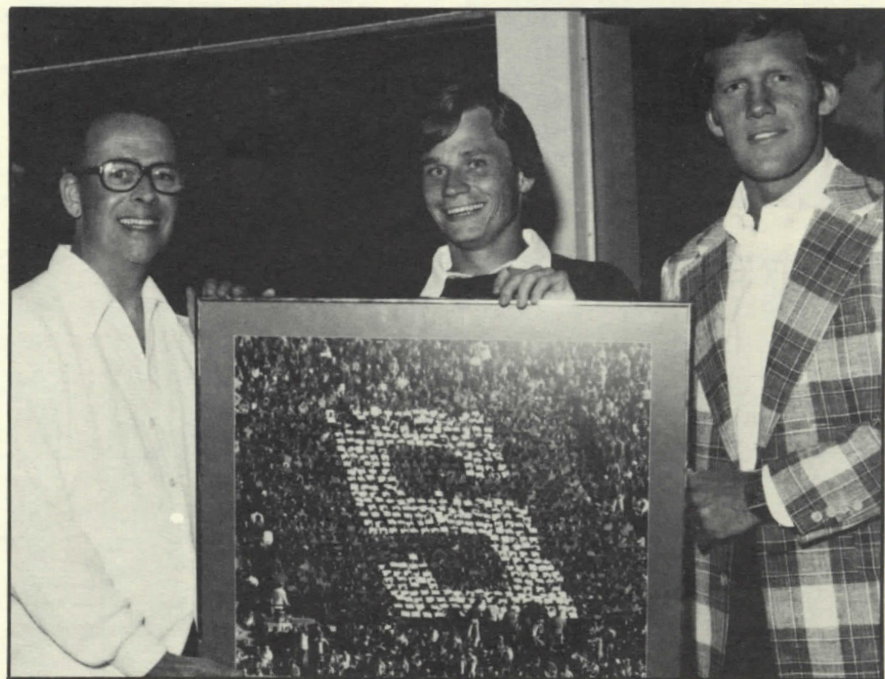

He retired from Dow Chemical in 1975, a firm he joined in 1938. Prior to his retirement from Dow Chemical, Caldwell was executive vice president of Dow Lepitit and vice president of Lepitit SpA, Milan, Italy, Dow's worldwide pharmaceutical division. He was also a founder and vice president of Dow Corning Corp.

OUTSTANDING VETERINARY ALUMNI — A proponent of biomedical research, an educator, and a private practitioner have been named Outstanding Alumni of the College of Veterinary Medicine. They are, from left, Dr. Thurman Grafton, '47; Mrs. Lois Jackson (for her late husband, Dr. Ted Jackson), and Dr. Alfred Schiller. Grafton is executive director of the National Society for Medical Research and a strong advocate of animal research. Schiller is a small animal surgeon who spent most of his career in the veterinary faculty at the University of Illinois. Jackson was a private practitioner in the Battle Creek area for more than 30 years.
