On Nov. 16th 2022, the Council of Graduate Students (COGS) passed two important resolutions. The first resolution calls for the immediate removal of Larry Gaynor's name from the Eli Broad College of Business Gaynor Entrepreneurship Lab. This resolution passed 34-1-3 (yes-no-abstain). The second resolution calls for MSU Trustee O'Keefe to issue a public apology to the sister survivors and the faculty members of MSU for the hurtful and borderline hypocritical remarks he made on Nov. 28th. This resolution passed unanimously with a vote of 34-0-4. You may find these signed resolutions attached to this email or at this website: https://cogs.msu.edu/governance/legislation/

Anticipated Items at Upcoming Meetings

We plan to discuss a resolution calling for the university to accept a standard code of ethics. Part of this code of ethics will include a clause about not taking funding from donors whose views do not align with university values.

Requests for the Steering Committee

Please spread the word about the petition to remove Larry Gaynor's name from the Broad Business college.

Item 2223-06: Artificial Intelligence Use for Monitoring Students

Marlon Lynch presented to UCSLE about surveillance on campus, specifically with a group named Social Sentinel and surveillance of social media. 1. Does not use Social Sentinel 2. Contracted with a company named Media Sonar, they use Media Sonar to see what types of social media is being posted by people who may pose a threat. Uses it during big events like football games and protests. a. Based off of active information and can only find information that is able to be pulled from simple Google searches. Has used it several times already when open threats were made on social media. Many student representatives had worries about this technology, stating that it has historically marginalized minorities. President Kovach asked if information could be more public, and Ms. J asked if this technology could have been useful the night prior at the Candance Owens event held on campus. Many other questions regarding laws about this is to be used was asked.
