

VIPP Mission and Activities

Xinyu Wu, October 11, 2022

Mission

Provide transformative learning experience to international professionals & organizations by connecting people, knowledge, cultures and ideas

Visiting International Professional Program
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Actionable Priorities

Offer diverse high quality professional training program

Provide 360-degree Support and services

Stakeholders

Build high performing team

Engage with stakeholders through effective communication

Diverse Program

- USG program – DoS & USDA

AAP, Asia Hub, CERES, GenCen & Muslim Studies, BROAD, CAL, CANR, CEDU, CSS, AAN, VPRI .....

- Virtual summer/winter school for university students

BROAD and ComArts

Pakistan HE Senior Women Leadership Program - September 2022

360-Degree Support & Services

- Bolashak Presidential Scholarship program
CERES, CEDU & LAW
- SUSI Civic Engagement
CAL & CSS

Engagement

- 30th Anniversary
- Branding
- Website
- Social media
- VIPP Endowments
  - Afghanistan women development lecture – CSS, Guo Chen
  - Cambodia visiting scholar – CSS, Amanda Flaim
  - Palestinian history lecture – ISP, Mohammad Khalil
  - Global Korean Award – ISP, Siddharth Chandra

On Sunday, October 2nd VIPP organized a one-day cultural excursion and fall foliage tour to beautiful northern Michigan. A group of 50, including scholars from the Kazakhstan Bolashaq program, U.S. Department of Agriculture Borlaug fellows, and scholars from China and Korea, as well as their families joined the trip to visit Traverse City, Onekama, and Manistee along the Lake Michigan coast. All the visitors had fun enjoying Pure Michigan's natural wonders, food, and the beach... See more

VIPP Strategic Planning

- Fall retreats
  - Facilitated team building
  - SWOT review
  - Strategic alignment
- Conversations with stakeholders
- Financial model review
- Spring 2023 - Five-year Plan

Visiting International Professional Program
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Thank you!

Visiting International Professional Program
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY