9. ADJOURNMENT
1. CALL TO ORDER

   The meeting was called to order at 3:15 PM.

2. Approval of Agenda for November 8, 2016

   The agenda for November 8, 2016 was approved as presented.

3. Approval of Draft Minutes for October 11, 2016

   The draft minutes for October 11, 2016 were approved as distributed.

4. President’s Remarks: Lou Anna K. Simon – Out of Town

5. Provost’s Remarks: June Youatt

   Provost Youatt reported that the University-wide Investiture Ceremony went extremely well, adding that the University celebrated 32 new tiers in professorships.

   Provost Youatt noted that this was not just an event to allow donors who had funded these positions to see the consequences of their investment, but that it was a celebration of faculty excellence at MSU.

   Provost Youatt stated that posters that have been placed in a number of buildings that suggest students can vote through text messaging. It was suggested in this poster that this was sponsored by the Democratic Party, that hashtag Hilary, and that the student can vote through tweeting. The MSU police has confirmed with the FBI that this is voter fraud. Provost Youatt asked that if anyone sees one of those signs they are asked to take it down. The FBI is investigating the use of these posters as voter fraud.
Provost Youatt stated that Dean James Kirpatrick of the College of Natural Science will be stepping down after a nine year appointment to continue his award-winning research work.

Provost Youatt stated that she is meeting with the Advisory Committee to set the parameters for the development of the Search Committee. When this is done, the Search Committee will conduct the search.

Provost Youatt added that two weeks ago the ribbon was cut to the new bio-engineering building, which is over by the Clinical Center. This building will house the new Bio-Engineering Department Office, but it will also be the home of the new Institute for Quantitative Sciences and Engineering.

6. Chairperson’s Remarks: Professor Deborah Moriarty

Professor Moriarty distributed a flyer for concert on Monday, November 28th, 2016 at 7:30 p.m. featuring the Russian composer PROKOFIEV. Everyone was invited to the concert.

6.1. Professor Moriarty presented the link to the Title IX Report (click on link), adding that if you click on the link, you will be taken to the report to see what the Title IX is doing.

Professor Moriarty reported that at last Faculty Senate meeting, we had Steve Troost discuss campus planning, during which there were a number of questions about parking and vehicles on campus. She added that John Prush from the Department of Police and Public Safety (DPPS) was also invited to talk to the Steering Committee. He will also be making a presentation at the University Council. He will be discussing the Move Safe Program. Professor Moriarty asked that attendees come with questions from the faculty, so that John Prush can answer those.

In addition, Tony Ogden will be talking about Study Abroad at MSU and new initiatives with the Study Abroad program. Professor Moriarty requested that those in attendance to please talk to faculty who may be teaching programs in Study Abroad, and bring any questions for Tony Ogden to address.

7. NEW BUSINESS

7.1. Academic Advancement Network, Dr. Elizabeth Simmons, Associate Provost and Dean of Lyman Briggs

Dr. Simmons presented slides on Academic Advancement Network. She explained the network and how we all work together at the University. The idea behind this project is to suggest something dynamic involving the name. She added that the Academic Advancement Network reflects what the University is attempting to accomplish. The word “academic” is used because we are here to serve all academics at the University, not only tenure system faculty, but also specialists, fixed term, research faculty, and so on. The word “advancement” is used because our purpose is to help people advance in the careers according to their interests and what they want to pursue, along with how they want their careers to develop. The word “network” is used because we are not going to do all of the work in our little office in the administration building. We will be collaborating with departments, programs, colleges, and offices around the University to do things that will help people advance.
7.2. University Committee on Curriculum Report, Professor Jerry Urquhart (Action Item) (Appendix C—Short Report) Full Report (click on link for full report)
Professor Jerry Urquhart presented the report and a Motion to approve report was first and seconded. Motion carried.

7.3. Faculty Involvement in Campus Climate, Professor John Beck, Human Resources and Labor Relations and Jessica Norris, Title IX Coordinator, Office of Institutional Equity

John Beck stated that Deborah Moriarty and Gary Hoppenstand asked if he would spend some time with you today, having you work together in groups. He stated that the attendees were going to be looking at campus climate. The first thing to be done is what is called pre-discussion writing.

First, the attendees will be doing individual writing, and second, the product of that writing will be discussed in small groups.

The issue to be discussed is “what is the role of the faculty in setting and maintaining a positive campus climate.” John Beck added that part of the discussion involves what can we uniquely do as faculty governance to set and maintain a positive campus climate?

The resulting faculty recommendations of this small group assignment are as follows:

Group Reports

Group 1: Improve student voice to the faculty. Have the administration able to act and be accountable. Create norms for campus behavior. Develop a statement on a “civil climate.” Take a stance on injustice.

Group 2: Model behavior and discuss important issues as a faculty. Provide additional scholarships. Fund what helps faculty move forward. Follow through on issues that raise concerns.

Group 3: Report individual issues of concern, even if they are minor. Be aware and feel safe when reporting. Provide guidance on how to be a mentor.

Group 4: Qualify how we get everybody to feel responsible for their behavior? Understand what we can control and how we can support each other? Define how we can proceed in “awkward situations.” Define what is a “positive climate”? Cover “grey areas” of responsibilities. Identify what are we doing that is positive in our departments?

Group 5: Create a responsible infrastructure. Develop a positive community. Conduct ourselves how we expect students to conduct themselves. Create a way to have “civil climate” conversations in the classroom all of the time.

Group 6: Assemble, review, and clarify policies to help inform students and other faculty members. Recognize diversity of opinions.

Group 7: Understand what “being valued” means for students and faculty. Define the notion of “community” on and off campus.

7.4. Faculty Senate Survey Comprehensive List, Professor Deborah Moriarty

8. Comments from the floor - None

Professor Moriarty reported that this will be the last Faculty Senate meeting until January. She concluded her remarks by wishing everyone a Happy Thanksgiving.

By-Laws

Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics

Adopted on 15 June 2007 by vote of the Coalition membership

Article I. Membership, Representation, Voting Process, and Meetings

1. The membership of the Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics (referred to as the “Coalition” or “COIA” in these by-laws) shall be composed of faculty senates (or the equivalent campus faculty governance body) at NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS; formerly Division IA) institutions that have elected to join the Coalition by vote of their senate membership.

   N.B., The phrase “faculty senate” is generic and refers to the primary campus faculty governance body.

2. Member senates shall be represented by their elected president/chair (or equivalent faculty leader/officer) and by a faculty liaison (called the COIA representative), designated by the member senate or its executive committee. The term of the faculty liaison to COIA shall be at the discretion of the member senate or its executive committee.

   N.B., Some faculty senates are chaired by the institution’s president/chancellor; in those cases, it is the faculty “chief executive” who is to serve as one of the COIA representatives.

   N.B., The reasons COIA instituted the liaison position (which was always recommended, rather than required) were that it wanted someone at each school who could be a reliable contact over time, as senate chairs turned over every 1-2 years, and it wanted a way to ensure that if a senate chair found COIA uninteresting or uncongenial, there would be someone likely to have interest in and/or knowledge of COIA who was co-appointed to be in touch with COIA. However, COIA is a coalition of senates, and it can only be sure that a senate is at least technically informed about COIA activities if membership correspondence goes directly to the chair. Sometimes chairs have asked to be taken off the membership mailing list, but that would leave COIA vulnerable, since it would not be able to confirm and assert that issues were conveyed to senate authority accurately. For these reasons, chairs should remain on the list ex officio and receive messages directly, regardless of interest or engagement.

3. Each member senate shall have one vote in the Coalition. The member senate may decide who (i.e., the senate president or COIA representative) shall cast the vote for the senate. In the absence of a senate decision, the senate president and COIA representative shall determine who casts the vote. In case of disagreement, the vote shall be cast according to the preference of the Senate President.

4. The Coalition takes collective action by majority vote of its members. How each member senate votes shall be decided by its COIA representatives or by the member senate if it chooses to direct a vote. The Coalition may stipulate, by a majority of senate representatives, that votes of full senates are required to endorse a specific collective action.

5. Votes may take place through and as a result of email communication, or may take place at a national meeting of the Coalition. Votes on major matters must be ratified by a majority of the full membership. A vote taken at a national meeting may be extended in order to request votes from non-attending Coalition members in order to achieve ratification.

6. The Coalition shall hold national meetings on an annual basis if possible. All representatives from member schools shall be invited.

Article II. Steering Committee

1. The Steering Committee shall be composed of one or two representatives from each FBS conference. Conferences with two or fewer COIA members, conferences that do not nominate Steering Committee representatives, and institutions that do not belong to conferences shall have no voting representatives but may be represented by a non-voting member under Article II.6h

   [N.B., Broad conference representation is important so that COIA can legitimately claim to speak for all of Division IA. As a deliberative body, moreover, the Steering Committee includes a number of active, non-voting consulting members, outside the structure of conference allotments, whose voices are important. The mechanism of ex-officio non-voting members can be used to address any difficulties that may arise as a result of distributing voting representation by conference.]

2. Steering Committee members are selected by agreement of the senate representatives from the member schools within each conference. A Steering Committee member may also serve as the COIA representative from his or her senate and/or as the University’s Faculty Athletic Representative (FAR). The appointment process is coordinated by the Coalition Co-Chairs.

3. Steering Committee members serve three-year, renewable terms. Reappointment shall follow the same process as for the original appointment as described in Article II.2.

4. The Steering Committee is coordinated by the Coalition Co-Chairs, and may convene by email or in person.

5. The Steering Committee shall act by majority vote of participating members who cast a vote on any particular proposal.

6. The Steering Committee shall have the authority to:

   a. Carry on the business of the Coalition between national meetings and act on behalf of the Coalition between meetings. Such actions are subject to review and modification or reversal by the Coalition membership at the next meeting, or by a vote of the membership during intervals between meetings.

   b. Interact with the NCAA and other groups.
c. Organize and/or participate in events that advance the goals of the Coalition as outlined in papers and documents it has adopted.

d. Promote the Coalition and its activities.

e. Draft documents that articulate faculty viewpoints, subject to the ratification of member representatives.

f. Convene national meetings.

g. Seek funding to support the activities of the Coalition as it deems appropriate or as directed by the members.

h. Direct the activities of the Co-Chairs.

i. Appoint non-voting consulting members to the Steering Committee as appropriate.

j. Appoint standing or ad hoc committees as appropriate.

Article III. Officers

1. There shall be two Co-Chairs of the Coalition, elected by the members of the Steering Committee. The officers are responsible for initiating and coordinating ongoing email discussion of Coalition issues among Steering Committee members, for convening meetings of the Steering Committee from time to time, as they or a majority of the Steering Committee may deem appropriate, and for facilitating and advancing the objectives of the Coalition.

2. Co-Chairs shall serve two-year terms, beginning in alternate years. Co-chair terms may be renewed by majority vote of the Steering Committee.

Article IV. Dues and Finances

1. There are no dues to belong to the Coalition.

2. The Coalition shall collect funds only to meet costs of routine activities, such as the coordination of annual meetings, and shall maintain no treasury.

Article V. Adoption and amendment of bylaws

1. These bylaws come into force when approved by a majority of COIA member senates. The representatives of each member senate will decide on the manner in which their member senate will determine its vote: whether by vote of the full senate, the senate executive committee, or the senate representatives to the Coalition. The decision shall be reported to the member senate.

2. These bylaws may be amended by two-thirds of the voting members participating in a vote to amend. The manner of voting shall be as in Article V. 1.
MISSION

The Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics (COIA) is an organization representing the elected faculty governance bodies of National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) universities in activities related to the administration and governance of intercollegiate athletics.

COIA’s mission is to promote the academic integrity of member universities, and to represent the interests of faculties, non-athlete students and student-athletes in matters related to college sports that can significantly affect the health, sustainability and educational missions of our institutions.

COIA aims to accomplish its mission by assisting the governance of intercollegiate athletics on our campuses through data collection, information sharing and the development of best practices; partnering with peer-faculty and other organizations on our common interests; and also by providing a constructive, responsible and informed representative faculty voice at the conference and national (NCAA) levels. (Revised April, 2014)

BYLAWS

These Bylaws were originally adopted at the June 15, 2007 annual meeting of COIA by a quorum of members present and voting, and revised by vote of the membership in February of 2017.

ARTICLE I Membership, Representation, Voting Process, and Meetings

A. Members. The membership of the Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics (referred to as the “Coalition” or “COIA” in these by-laws) shall be composed of faculty senates (or the equivalent campus faculty governance body) at NCAA Division I institutions that have elected to join the Coalition by vote of their senate membership. “Faculty senate” is a generic term that refers to the primary campus faculty governance body.

B. Representatives. Member senates shall be represented by two COIA member representatives: (1) their elected president/chair (or equivalent faculty leader/officer), and (2) a faculty COIA representative, designated by the member senate or its executive committee.

(1) Elected Senate President/Chair. In the case of any Faculty Senate that is chaired by the institution’s president or chancellor, the faculty “chief executive” shall serve in this position. The term of service of the Senate President/Chair shall correspond to his/her faculty senate term of service.
(2) Faculty COIA Representative. The term of service of the faculty COIA representative shall be at the discretion of the member senate or its executive committee.

(3) Faculty senates are encouraged to elect tenured faculty to serve as COIA representatives because of the protection such status provides.

(4) Both representatives shall receive all correspondence issued by the Steering Committee.

C. Powers, Rights and Duties of Members

(1) One Vote per Member Faculty Senate. At each Annual or Special Meeting or in the case of mail or email votes on business and other issues presented to the membership for determination or in the case of election of officers or members of the Board of Directors, each Faculty Senate is entitled to one vote which may be cast by either of its two representatives, as determined by the president/chair of that Faculty Senate member.

(a) Quorum. A simple majority of the member institutions’ representatives present, whether in person or via telephone or video conference, call shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business at the Annual or Special Meetings.

(b) Adoption of Provisions. A majority vote is required for the adoption of any motion except for amendments to the Bylaws which require two-thirds for approval.

(c) Mail Ballot Requirement. A vote taken at the Annual or any Special Meeting with a quorum present and voting is final unless there is a majority vote at the meeting to decide the measure by mail or email ballot.

(2) Formal Vote of Campus Faculty Senates. By majority vote at an Annual Meeting or majority vote of the Steering Committee, issues of significant importance may be designated for the formal vote of member faculty senates on each campus rather than votes cast by the senators’ respective COIA representatives. In such case, a majority of faculty senates must approve the proposed provision in order for it to be adopted.

(3) COIA member representatives are entitled to be nominated for election to the Steering Committee or as officers or to serve on standing or ad hoc committees or advisory councils.

(4) Adoption of Formal COIA Positions. Only the full membership can vote to adopt formal positions of the organization on issues. However, the Steering Committee is authorized to produce press releases in response to current events that are consistent with adopted positions or to take other actions to advance those positions. See Article II for Steering Committee powers and duties.)

D. Meetings.

(1) Annual Meeting. The members shall meet at least once during each fiscal year at a time and place to be determined by the Steering Committee. The fiscal year for COIA shall be July 1 – June 30.
(2) Special Meeting. A special meeting may be called by the Steering Committee or upon the written request of at least twenty Members. Special meetings may be held at a reasonable location or by conference call as determined by the Steering Committee.

E. Member Dues. The Steering Committee is authorized to solicit grant or donation support and/or from time-to-time to set the amount of Member annual dues to cover the operating costs of the organization.

ARTICLE II  Steering Committee

A. Composition, Term of Office and Election

(1) Composition. The Steering Committee shall consist of nine persons elected by vote of the membership as a whole, and shall be the following persons: (i) the Chair; (ii) the Vice Chair; (iii) the Secretary; (iv) the immediate past Chair; (v) the chairs of the three standing committees (described below in Article III – Standing Committees) and (vi) two at-large members.

(2) Term of Office and Election. The term of office of each Steering Committee Member (except for a replacement Steering Committee Member- See Article II, Sections D. and E) shall be three years and the terms of Steering Committee members shall be staggered so that no more than two or three of the terms of office expire annually. The term of office of a Steering Committee Member (except for a replacement Steering Committee Member) shall commence immediately following election. There shall be no limitation regarding the number of terms (consecutive on otherwise) that a Steering Committee Member may serve.

B. Powers, Rights and Duties. The Steering Committee shall have the powers, rights and duties necessary or appropriate for the proper governance of the business and affairs of the organization, except as may be limited by the Bylaws. Powers, rights and duties shall include the following:

(1) Draft documents that articulate faculty viewpoints, subject to the ratification of member representatives or faculty senates;

(2) Draft resolutions for the consideration of members consistent with faculty viewpoints previously ratified by Member representatives when such public action by individual Senates is beneficial to advance such viewpoints;

(3) In response to current issues and developments in intercollegiate athletics, issue official COIA position statements and press releases consistent with positions ratified by the Membership;

(4) Interact with the NCAA and other groups and participate in events and media activities to advance faculty viewpoints previously ratified by Member representatives;

Commented [LG1]: After discussion with Mike Bowen on July 1, we decided that a nine person SC would be best to provide the opportunity for broader representation from the various conferences.

Commented [BM2R1]: This is a point we’ve discussed in our last two meetings, and needs additional discussion of its pros and cons. I know there is some degree of strong sentiment out there for a guarantee that all conferences be represented on the SC. The opposing argument on this point is that given the realignments and large number of conferences, the SC becomes unwieldy and many members become unresponsive. In addition, the range of issues COIA deals with ordinarily transcend conference interests, so the point is possibly moot. A smaller number of more committed members might serve COIA better. Please consider and discuss this matter with all of us so we can assure a good consensus on whatever the decision will be.
