COUNCIL FOR ADVANCEMENT AND SUPPORT OF EDUCATION (CASE)
U.S. PROFESSOR OF THE YEAR

Criteria:

- Each campus may nominate up to three candidates
- Nominees must teach at the undergraduate level
- Nominees may be of any academic rank and may teach full or part time
- Nominees must be teaching actively for at least one semester during the 2005-06 academic year
- Professors who have been on a full-year sabbatical should not be considered until next year

The primary characteristic the judges consider is an extraordinary dedication to undergraduate teaching, which should be demonstrated by excellence in the following areas:

- Impact on and involvement with undergraduate students
- Scholarly approach to teaching and learning
- Contributions to undergraduate education in the institution, community, and profession
- Support from colleagues and current and former undergraduate students

Review Committee Suggested Membership:

1 ECAC Representative (Will Chair Committee)
1 ASMSU Representative
1 COGS Representative
1 Distinguished Faculty Representative
1 Women’s Advisory Committee to the Provost Representative