RANK AND ADMINISTRATIVE TITLE (if any): Assistant Professor/ Director of Graduate Studies/ CLACS Core Faculty

CAMPUS ADDRESS (including e-mail): Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 342 Old Horticulture Building, quispeag@msu.edu

QUALIFICATIONS FOR SERVING ON THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE. Please be sure to indicate your experience in any and all of the University’s international domains (teaching, research, outreach, study abroad, etc.):
Rocio Quispe-Agnoli is a Latinamericanist with special emphasis in Colonial and Postcolonial Studies, Ethnic Studies and the Andean region. She has maintained an active research agenda since her arrival at MSU, that includes 1 scholarly book in press and more than 25 articles in peer-reviewed journals. Her research deals with issues of Latin American identities, constructions of otherness, Latin American Indigenous –especially Andean-- migrations within Latin American territories and to the US, and the perception of Latin America by the intellectuals of First World’s academic institutions. She has an extensive (academic and teaching) international training/experience (see attached CV), and has co-directed a Study Abroad Program in the Andean region. In 2003 Professor Quispe-Agnoli was recognized as CLACS Outstanding Faculty and was nominated by our Department, and selected by the College of Arts and Letters, to the 2005-2006 MSU Scholar-Teacher Award. At the undergraduate level, she mentors our Department’s offerings of SPN 452, Business Spanish and Spanish for the Professions. In addition to her duties as Director of Graduate Studies, she is a core faculty member of the “Women in Development” Program and the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies since 2000. She has served on ISP Foreign Language Area Studies review committees for three consecutive years (2002-2005), and currently serves in the CLACS Advisory Committee since Spring 2005. In 2003 Professor Quispe-Agnoli was selected by the College Advisory Council to serve in the Steering Committee that overviewed possible structures for College reorganization. Currently she is serving in the search committee for a new dean in the College of Arts and Letters. If selected to serve in the search committee for a new dean of ISP, Professor Quispe will bring my international experience as both, a teacher and a researcher who deals with multilingual and multicultural daily situations, and her expertise as a faculty member who has served in many national searches for new Faculty members and for a Dean in the College of Arts and Letters. She is also highly committed to the internationalization of MSU and the implementation of new teaching models (including hybrid/blended courses) to be used for instruction and assessment of undergraduate and graduate programs.

Professor of Marketing & International Business
Director, MSU International Business Center (MSU-CIBER)
Executive Director, Academy of International Business

CAMPUS ADDRESS (including e-mail):
7 Eppley Center
hult@msu.edu

QUALIFICATIONS: See next page.
QUALIFICATIONS FOR SERVING ON THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE. Please be sure to indicate your experience in any and all of the University’s international domains (teaching, research, outreach, study abroad, etc.):

Tomas Hult is Director of the country’s leading national resource center in the U.S., i.e., the Center for International Business Education and Research at MSU (he has served in that role since January 2001). In this role, he serves on MSU’s International and Studies Program (ISP) Director’s Committee. He also represents the business school on the Advisory/Consultative Committee to the ISP Dean (A/CC). See http://ciber.msu.edu for more information.

MSU-CIBER is the web headquarters for all 31 CIBERs around the nation (funded by the U.S. Department of Education) – see http://ciberweb.msu.edu for more information. The CIBER has a large Advisory Council of business leaders and government representatives (including Sandy Ring, COO at Michigan Economic Development Corporation). MSU-CIBER is also the creator of the world-leading online source in international business – globalEDGE (http://globaledge.msu.edu); attracting more than 3,800,000 hits and several hundred thousand page views per month (it is ranked #1 in “international business” by all major search engines). Under Dr. Hult’s leadership, the Global Business Club of Mid-Michigan was launched; it attracts some 100 business leaders to its luncheon speaker series six time per year.

Dr. Hult is also a full professor in marketing and international business in the Eli Broad College of Business at MSU. During his career he has amassed a research record of more than 100 articles on various international business and trade topics along with specialized articles on strategic marketing and supply chain management. A testament to his prolific publication record and respect, he has guest edited 10 special issues of respectable journals on international business and trade. He has also helped bring in millions of dollars in corporate and federal grants to support the university’s research mission (as well as its outreach, teaching, and service scope). With Dr. Hult’s leadership, the Broad College has recently been ranked #1 in research impact in international business (Management International Review 2004).

Since January 2004, Dr. Hult has also served as Executive Director of the Academy of International Business and President of the AIB Foundation (AIB is the premier professional organization for academics in international business, spanning more than 70 countries with 3,000 members). Dr. Hult is Deputy Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of International Business Studies, the field’s sole “A” research publication. Membership has increased by almost 45% since Dr. Hult became Executive Director. See http://aib.msu.edu for more information.

I have been at MSU for 39 years. During this time I have extensively traveled abroad on sabbatical leaves and short term visiting appointments: Australia, Germany, India, Hong Kong. In the past there used to be an organization MSU-Scope on the campus involved with the scientific cooperation at international level. I was the chair of that organization around 1995-1996. I am currently on the board of MSU-India Council that involves some interaction with Asia Study Center.

NOMINATION FORM FOR ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR THE DEAN OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AND PROGRAMS

NOMINEE: Charles Gliozzo

RANK AND ADMINISTRATIVE TITLE: Present, Consultant to the Dean of International Studies and Programs; Professor Emeritus, Department of History, Director Emeritus, Office of Study Abroad

QUALIFICATIONS FOR SERVING ON THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE.
Please be sure to indicate your experience in any and all of the University’s international domains (teaching, research, outreach, study abroad, etc.

Since 1968 I have been on campus as a teacher and administrator. From 1973 to 1993, I was the Director of the Office of Overseas Study that established over 80 programs involving over 70 faculty and a maximum enrollment of 1,200 students in 1992. From 1993 to the present, I have been in the Dean’s Office of International Studies and Programs as an Assistant to the Dean and presently, as the Consultant to the Dean. In this capacity my responsibilities included a diverse range of international activities. Several examples serving as a Fulbright advisor, chairing ISP award committees, writing reports, analyzing linkage agreements with overseas academic institutions, coordinating/programming schedules for international campus visitors and a multitude of other duties.

Enclosed is a brief c.v. that focuses on the international domains relating to international honors, national, regional and staff positions, grants, publications, consultancies, conferences, university committees including the most recent on the establishment of the New Residential College, professional and community service (outreach), editor, referee and proposal reviewer in international education.

A review of this c.v., indicates that I have been involved in international activities for over 32 years. I believe that if we wish to extend the “international reach” as one of the goals of “Boldness in Design”, I am eminently qualified as a knowledgeable and resource person to serve on the advisory committee to select the Dean of International Studies and Programs.
